Description

A stunning Art Nouveau ring in 18-karat gold and platinum, adorned with a red navette-shaped pâte de verre and small old-cut diamonds in the petals. The asymmetrical design, enlivened by scrolls and stylized plant motifs, perfectly embodies the Art Nouveau aesthetic. The supple, organic lines seem to flow gracefully around the central stone, while the diamonds add sparkle and lightness to the overall piece. The pâte de verre features subtle raspberry-pink reflections that harmonize beautifully with the warmth of the yellow gold and the delicate sparkle of the diamonds. Its elongated shape gives the ring a particularly elegant silhouette on the finger. French Art Nouveau, circa 1900. Eagle's head hallmark. Very good overall condition. Gross weight: 4.72 g.
