Description

An elegant dining table from the 1970s, featuring a magnificent oval Calacatta marble top. Its beveled edge visually slims the thickness of the marble and gives it a light, airy aesthetic. For purists, the tabletop retains its original varnish, which has naturally weathered over time, giving it an authentic patina. To restore its original luster, the tabletop has been repolished. Resting on a nickel-plated metal base with a sculptural silhouette, composed of two elements shaped like inverted crescent moons, this table perfectly exemplifies the sophisticated design of the 1970s. This table comfortably seats 6 people. An elegant and decorative piece, ideal for a contemporary or vintage interior. Length: 1.90m Width: 1.05m
