Description

A French console table dating from the mid-19th century (Louis-Philippe style), characterized by a curved frame crafted from fine mahogany. The front is embellished with a delicate central carving featuring floral and foliage motifs, which also serves as a decorative element for the lower panel and drawer. The front legs, richly carved with scrollwork, volutes, and acanthus leaves, elegantly support the piece and connect to a lower storage shelf, which is also contoured.Origin: FrancePeriod: mid-1800sStyle: Louis-PhilippeDimensions: 102x52x88h cmSKU: 17472
