Description

A large, low mahogany bookcase with six lattice-work doors, in the Louis XVI style, dating from the late 19th to early 20th century. It features an elegant design inspired by the Louis XVI style, with its clean lines, straight stiles, tapered legs finished with brass feet, and gilded bronze and brass accents. The interior features a shelf offering ample storage space for books, collections, or works of art. Thanks to its exceptional dimensions--276 cm in length--this piece can also serve as a console table or display cabinet in a classic or contemporary interior. Beautiful craftsmanship and excellent decorative presence. Key works. Delivery within mainland France: EUR200. Contact us for more information.
