Description

This elegant set of eight Baccarat crystal wine glasses belongs to the celebrated Burgos pattern, one of the French crystal maker's most distinctive and timeless designs. Dating to circa 1930, these glasses showcase the exceptional craftsmanship for which Baccarat has been internationally renowned since the 19th-century. Each glass features a beautifully cut diamond-point pattern covering the lower portion of the bowl, creating remarkable brilliance and light refraction. The design is complemented by a refined faceted stem and a striking sunburst-cut foot, characteristic elements of the Burgos service. The gently flared bowl adds both elegance and practicality, making these glasses suitable for wine service as well as sophisticated table settings. Bearing the Baccarat acid-etched mark visible beneath the foot, the
