Description

This sleeper sofa was once part of the furnishings in the apartments at the Résidence Nova in Les Arcs, an iconic project by the talented Charlotte Perriand. The frame of this piece, crafted from carefully arranged pine slats, contains two ingeniously concealed sliding drawers, accessible via a drop-down panel. The seat cushion and foam cushions are upholstered in an anthracite gray fabric from Nobilis. The bench converts into a bed measuring 190 cm × 80 cm, providing an ideal place to rest. Seat height: 45 cm. Origin: Résidence Nova, Les Arcs.
