Description

Model 829 recliner and ottoman designed by Gio Ponti for Cassina in Italy in the 1950s. The dark-stained wooden frame features slender and particularly light lines, characteristic of Gio Ponti's work during this period. The curved armrests frame an upholstered seat and high backrest, whose adjustable recline enhances comfort for reading and resting. The ottoman echoes the same formal language with a slender, open structure, emphasizing the architectural elegance of the set. Model 829 exemplifies Gio Ponti's pursuit of lightness and modernity in postwar Italian furniture. Manufacturer: Cassina, Italy, circa 1955. Bibliography: F. Mautone, Gio Ponti: la committenza Fernandes, Electa, pp. 155-156
