Description

Astrolabio table designed by Oscar Tusquets for Aleph-Driade in Italy in the 1980s. The conical base, made of patinated bronze, supports a circular frosted glass top engraved with a geometric star motif in the center. This radiating design, characteristic of Oscar Tusquets' work during the postmodern period, gives the table a particularly strong sculptural and graphic presence. A few chips on the base. Manufacturer: Aleph-Driade, Italy, circa 1985.
