Description

Napoleon III-style display cabinet in rosewood marquetry, Napoleon III period. Decorated with caryatids, scrolls, and moldings in gilded bronze. Refined marquetry decoration featuring brass fillets and blue-stained wood.

The "gendarme's hat" cornice is embellished with rich sculpted molding in solid rosewood and a central motif in solid rosewood, framed by a gilded bronze figure. Curved front opening with a glass door inlaid with diamond-shaped panels outlined by brass fillets. Lemonwood interior featuring four double-crossbow-shaped shelves, with rosewood edges. The lower drawer is fitted with a pull covered in burgundy felt and a lemonwood back. The sides of the drawer are decorated with small balusters stained black. Original locks and keys are functional.
