Description

An important and decorative English tableware set made of stamped earthenware in shades of blue on an ivory background, produced by the renowned Palissy Pottery as part of the "Thames River Scenes" series. The decoration, in a typically British style, depicts evocative landscapes along the Thames featuring architectural views, bridges, and rural scenes, all framed by rich floral borders. A set with a strong decorative character, ideal both for everyday use and as a decorative piece or collector's item. The Palissy factory, active in Staffordshire during the 20th century, is particularly appreciated for its productions inspired by the tradition of English transferware ceramics. The set is in good overall condition considering its age, with visible signs of aging, craquelure in the glaze, slight wear, and
