Description

A spectacular pair of richly carved and gilded wood paneling elements, attributed to 18th-century Italy, in the style of grand Rococo decor. Their particularly dynamic design, composed of broad asymmetrical scrolls, foliage volutes, rocaille motifs, and counter-curves, creates a theatrical and dynamic composition. The patinated gilding and the quality of the craftsmanship make these pieces true fragments of historical architecture and enhance the decorative power intended to adorn a palace or an aristocratic residence. Italy, 18th century Dimensions: Total height: 249 cm -

Width: 79 cm Base dimensions: 100 x 51

cm Provenance : Château de La Verdière, Château du Xe siècle, classé monument historique, situé sur la commune de La Verdière dans le Var.
