Description

Important mid-Empire/Restoration-period walnut desk, 19th century An elegant and imposing mid-sized desk made of solid walnut, featuring three drawers along the base and two side doors that open to reveal storage spaces with shelves. The architecturally designed front is punctuated by sturdy posts with ogee-shaped consoles, resting on bronze-clad bases. The rectangular top is upholstered in green leather framed by walnut molding. The piece features beautiful walnut grain on all sides, making it suitable for placement in the center of a room. Its open central area provides excellent comfort of use, while its ample storage space makes it a particularly functional desk. With its generous proportions and high-quality craftsmanship, this desk will naturally find its place in a study, a
