Description

A pendant lamp designed by Jo Hammerborg for Fog & Mørup in Denmark in the 1960s. The lamp features a large, circular shade made of lacquered metal. The interior is equipped with concentric baffles that diffuse the light without glare and create downward-directed lighting. This technical system is characteristic of Hammerborg's work; he designed numerous pendant lights for Fog & Mørup intended for both residential interiors and public spaces. The original Fog & Mørup label with the reference number 712-3 is located on the inside of the shade. Manufacturer: Fog & Mørup, Denmark
