

A Grand Louis XVI-style Fireplace, Complete With Its Trumeau, All Made Of Lacquered Wood With

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 144

Height : 248

Description

Impressive Louis XVI-style mantelpiece, with its trumeau, all crafted from lacquered wood with gold leaf accents. An elegant decorative set consisting of a Louis XVI-style mantelpiece and its impressive matching trumeau with mirror. Crafted from ivory-colored lacquered wood and finely gilded, the set features a refined decoration of pearls, heart-shaped motifs, scrollwork, and plant motifs inspired by the French neoclassical repertoire. The mantelpiece is topped with a veined black marble shelf and adorned on the front with a frieze of gilded scrollwork. The side panels are accented with delicate vertical gold decorations. The architecturally shaped trumeau features a large mirror framed by beaded moldings and surmounted by a cornice decorated with

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

heart-shaped motifs. With its generous dimensions and luminous presentation, this ensemble makes a remarkable decorative feature for a living room, a gallery, a private mansion, or a home of character. Overall dimensions: Total height: 248 cm Width: 144 cm Depth: 52 cm Mirror dimensions: Height: 126 cm Fireplace dimensions: Height: 122 cm In excellent condition.