Description

Large gilded bronze fireplace screen with putti motifs and openwork rocaille decoration. The frame is richly adorned with volutes, foliage, and shells characteristic of the Louis XV style. The center features two cherubs (putti) framing a stylized brazier. The screen is fitted with its original metal mesh, designed to protect against flying embers while allowing heat to radiate through. Its harmonious proportions and the quality of its decoration make it a sought-after decorative piece for an antique fireplace or a classic interior. Dimensions Height: 74 cm Width: 72 cm Depth: 23 cm Period Louis XV Rocaille style Made around 1880 Condition Gilding with a uniform antique patina. Original metal mesh preserved.
