Description

Set of two significant decorative Guerlain "Eau de Cologne Impériale" bottles. Crafted from clear molded glass, these bottles are based on the iconic design created for Guerlain and feature the famous imperial bees associated with Emperor Napoleon III. They retain their matching spherical caps as well as their original green "Eau de Cologne Impériale" labels. The embossed decoration of bees and garlands, combined with the bottles' elegant silhouette, makes them beautiful display pieces for a bathroom, a boutique, a perfume store window, or a collection dedicated to the world of fragrance. Dimensions: Large model: height 25 cm Small model: height 21 cm Very good overall condition. Clear glass, caps present. Some signs of wear consistent with their decorative use. Sold as
