Description

Louis XVI-style hot water bottle table in light wood with marquetry. The circular tabletop features a refined marquetry design centered around a star-shaped rosette, framed by an elegant geometric border. It is encircled by an openwork brass rail that subtly accentuates the piece's silhouette. The band, adorned with pull tabs mimicking the traditional drawers and writing compartments of hot-water bottle tables, rests on four tapered, fluted legs topped with brass feet. With its harmonious proportions and meticulous decoration, this table is equally suited as a parlor pedestal table, a side table, or a lamp table. Louis XVI-style piece, 20th century. Dimensions: Height: 75 cm Diameter: 78 cm In good overall condition. Beautiful patina on the wood and marquetry. Slight signs of wear
