

Art Nouveau Floor Lamp Made Of Wrought Iron And Glass Paste

1 120 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Height : 165

Description

Important Art Nouveau floor lamp in wrought iron and glass paste with a tulip motif - Circa 1970. An elegant and rare Art Nouveau floor lamp resting on a hammered wrought-iron tripod base decorated with scrollwork. The conical tulip shade, crafted from multilayered glass paste, features a remarkable acid-etched design of tulips and foliage in reddish-brown tones against an amber-yellow background. When lit, the light reveals the full richness of the hues and particularly highlights the floral design, characteristic of the naturalistic aesthetic of Art Nouveau. The wrought-iron frame, with its simple and elegant lines, perfectly accentuates the slender shape of the tulip. The piece as a whole offers a refined and decorative silhouette, ideal for a distinctive interior. This piece evokes early

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

20th-century French craftsmanship in the spirit of the creations of Émile Gallé and the great glassmakers of the École de Nancy. Functional electrical wiring. Dimensions: Height: 165 cm Period: Circa 1970. Condition: Good overall condition. Some slight signs of wear consistent with its age. Electrical system in working order. This Art Nouveau floor lamp makes a stunning decorative statement, combining the delicacy of wrought iron with the poetic beauty of the floral glass paste design.