Description

A beautiful oil-on-canvas painting depicting a white horse inside a stable. The animal, rendered with keen observation and attention to detail, occupies the foreground, while other horses can be glimpsed in the shadows of the background. The composition skillfully plays on contrasts of light, highlighting the subject's power and elegance. This work is attributed to Théodore Fort (1810-1896), a French painter renowned for his genre scenes, landscapes, and depictions of animals. The quality of the drawing, the attention to the horse's anatomy, and the subtlety of the color palette attest to the artist's skill. The painting is set in a large antique carved and molded wooden frame with rich decoration of scrollwork and foliage, which emphasizes its decorative character. Characteristics: Artist: Théodore Fort
