Ethiopian Saber Known As A

590 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Ethiopian saber known as a "gurade" or "shotel" - Abyssinia, Ethiopia, 19th centuryStrongly curved European-style blade with a single edge and flat back. Manufacturer's mark on the back:"Mascoi fine twis?? mascoi"Or possibly "Tiascot fine twis?? tiascaot"Handle made of two pieces of cow horn.Very slight wear on the horn of the hilt. Sturdy, with no play. Length: 100 cmBlade length: 87 cmWeight: 757 g

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu
Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120