Description

An elegant, lidded oval-shaped box resting on a slender, oval-shaped pedestal. The body, with its clean lines, is flanked by two flat side handles and topped by a slightly domed lid, featuring a half-ring handle at its center. The piece exemplifies the understated, geometric style of late Art Deco, characterized by the purity of its forms and the absence of superfluous ornamentation. The low, elongated silhouette, combined with the mirror-like polish, gives this piece an architectural presence typical of the modernist creations of the Tétard house. Dimensions: Length with handles: 25 cm -
