

Saint Joseph And The Baby Jesus - Large Religious Terracotta Statue

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Height : 65

Description

Saint Joseph and the Infant Jesus - Large religious statue in polychrome terracotta and gilded wood. A significant religious statue depicting Saint Joseph guiding the Infant Jesus, crafted from polychrome terracotta with gilded highlights. The saint is depicted holding his pilgrim's staff, while the Child, at his side, looks up at him with trust. This composition tenderly expresses the protective bond between Saint Joseph and the Child Jesus. The rendering of the faces, which are particularly expressive, as well as the modeling of the drapery, attest to the high quality of the craftsmanship. The garments are embellished with elegant gilded decorations featuring plant motifs that highlight the precious nature of the piece as a whole. The sculpture rests on an ornate gilded wooden base, lending

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

stability and presence to this work intended for devotional use or to adorn a chapel, a church, or a collector's home. Features: Polychrome terracotta Gilded highlights Gilded wooden base Depiction of Saint Joseph and the Infant Jesus Religious work from the late 19th century Dimensions: Height: 65 cm Condition: Good overall condition. Some wear, minor losses, and typical restorations consistent with its age. The polychrome paint and gilding are well preserved, retaining all their decorative appeal. A beautiful work of popular devotion combining high-quality craftsmanship and a strong decorative presence, ideal for a collection of religious art or to enhance a distinctive interior.