Description

Elegant antique mahogany fireplace screen. Restored, it stands on a base with saber-shaped legs joined by a crossbar. The central panel is upholstered in its original antique fabric with a scattered pattern, offering a beautiful decorative appearance while preserving the charm and authenticity of the early 19th century. The cylindrical top rail allows for easy handling of the piece. With its simple and harmonious lines, this fireplace screen perfectly exemplifies the refined aesthetic of the Restoration period. It will naturally find its place in front of a fireplace or as a decorative element in a classic interior. Shipping within Metropolitan France: EUR90. Contact us for more information.
