Description

An elegant Louis XVI-style parlor stool from the 19th century, crafted from finely carved wood and gilded with gold leaf. It rests on four tapered, fluted legs joined by an openwork X-shaped crossbar adorned with a central finial. Its oval seat is upholstered with antique cane in good condition. The quality of its carving, the elegance of its proportions, and its beautiful gilding give it a refined presence, making it ideal for a classic living room, a bedroom, or as an end table. Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR90. Contact us for more information.
