Description

A pair of carved and gilded wooden chairs in the Louis XVI style, dating from the 19th century. They feature an elegant openwork backrest with a lyre motif accented by rosettes and a carved floral pattern at the top. The tapered, fluted legs are adorned with connecting blocks decorated with knots. The seats are cane-woven. One chair retains its cane work in a used condition, while the other requires restoration. A late 19th-century piece offering a beautiful decorative presence and all the charm of Louis XVI furniture. The structure is solid. Delivery in Metropolitan France: EUR90.
