Raymond Dierickx : "don Quixote At The Procession"

1 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Raymond Dierickx (1904-1978) "Don Quixote at the Procession," mixed media, 54 × 71cm (view size on paper), 55 × 73 cm, mounted with a pH-neutral mat, 60 × 80cm. Standing proudly atop Rocinante, Don Quixote gazes at the procession stretching from the church to the foreground. This talented Belgian artist was a true discovery for us! Even when found as loose, dusty sheets, these drawings, once prepared and framed, reveal the full extent of Dierickx's talent, reminiscent of artists such as Nicolas Eeckmann, Fritz Van den Berghe, Constant Permeke, and others such as Anto Carte, depicting festivals, processions, and fairs in the great tradition of Flemish painters dating back to the 17th century with the Brueghels, yet rendered with great modernity. Other facets of his work showcase his fresco
