Description

Traditional costume bodice made of velvet embroidered with metallic threads, 19th century. Elegant antique women's bodice in midnight blue silk velvet, richly adorned with floral embroidery in gold metallic thread and sewn-on sequins. Description The design, executed with great finesse, features a lush network of stylized flowers, foliage, and botanical motifs covering the entire garment. The sleeves are embellished with delicate antique machine-made lace, and the bodice retains its original braided cords with tassels. This piece is a testament to remarkable textile craftsmanship and is part of the tradition of festive or ceremonial costumes. The quality of the metallic appliqués, the richness of the decoration, and the preservation of the trimmings make it a beautiful
