

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Three-light Empire-style Hot-water Bottle Lamps Made Of Lacquered Sheet Metal, With Acces

680 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted metal

Width : 66

Height : 65

Description

Pair of three-light Empire-style hot-water bottle lamps made of lacquered sheet metal with a candle snufferA charming pair of Empire-style hot-water bottle lamps, crafted from yellow and black lacquered sheet metal. Each lamp features three arms topped with conical metal shades, adorned with an openwork trim featuring a trefoil pattern. The coiled arms and contrasting colors evoke the rustic, decorative styles of the early 20th century. These lamps add a warm and unique touch to a kitchen, sunroom, country house, or cottage-style interior. Features: Yellow and black lacquered sheet metal Three lights per fixture Decorative openwork galleries Empire-style hot-water bottle lamps Sold in pairs Dimensions: Height: 65 cm Width: 66 cm Period: Circa 1920. Condition: Used condition

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

with wear, chips, and paint flaking consistent with its age. Electrical system should be inspected and brought up to code according to intended use.