Description

Pair of Empire-period mahogany armchairs with Napoleonic emblems - 19th century
A beautiful pair of Empire-period mahogany armchairs, richly adorned with gilded bronze fittings featuring palmette motifs, rosettes, and imperial designs. The straight backrest is accented by an elegant row of nails, while the armrests rest on turned supports topped with stylized capitals. The red fabric upholstery, featuring laurel wreaths and "N" monograms, reinforces the Napoleonic character of the set. The simple yet powerful lines, combined with the quality of the mahogany, are characteristic of the Empire style of the early 19th century.
Features: Solid mahogany Gilded bronze ornamentation Studded trim Red fabric with Imperial motifs
