Description

French Liqueur Cabinet from circa 1860 with Cut-Glass Bottles and Glasses made of ebonized wood with brass and precious wood inlays, in good condition. Inside is a removable basket with a gilded bronze handle containing four bottles with finely cut stoppers and 16 glasses (ten original and six added from the same period). The original lock does not function properly (it closes but does not stay locked). Of French manufacture (cave à liqueur), it dates to the second half of the 1800s. The asking price does not include shipping costs.
