Renaissance Two-part Walnut Cabinet And Sideboard, 17th Century

1 250 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Wallnut

Width : 129

Height : 178

Depth : 63

Description

Cabinet - 17th-Century Renaissance Two-Part Walnut Sideboard A rare and impressive two-part sideboard made of solid walnut from the 17th century.This piece features architecture characteristic of late Renaissance furniture, with its powerful fluted pilasters, panels with molded moldings, and abundant carved decoration.The cornice is adorned with three finely carved winged angel heads, framing the doors of the upper section.The upper section opens to an interior that was originally lined with marbled paper and features three small drawers on the front.The lower section consists of two wide drawers surmounting a storage compartment closed by two doors.The piece captivates with the quality of its walnut, its beautiful antique patina, and its harmonious proportions.The deep

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

moldings, high-relief carvings, and sturdy construction attest to the craftsmanship of 17th-century French workshops.A piece of character, ideal for a historic home, a castle, or a grand classical interior.Period: 17th centuryMaterial: solid walnutOrigin: FranceCondition:In good overall condition considering its age.Signs of wear, scuffs, and minor cosmetic imperfections are visible, particularly on the baseboard and certain moldings.The original interior has been preserved with its marbled paper.Routine maintenance restorations.Dimensions:Height: 178 cmWidth: 129 cmDepth: 63 cm