Description

Carved and gilded wooden reliquary frame in the Rococo style, Tyrol, 18th century. In the center is a finely executed watercolor depicting Saint Veronica before an altar crucifix with the Veil of Christ (Vera Icon). An angel holding a scroll inscribed with "Vera Icon" refers to the Veil of Christ. The watercolor is surrounded by relics of saints and martyrs, as well as silver-thread trimmings, embroidery, and convent-made floral decorations. Inscriptions on the relics: S. Felicitatis M. - Saint Felicity, martyr of the early Church. S. Felicis M. - Saint Felix, martyr. St. Mamantis M. - Saint Mamant, martyr of the early centuries of Christianity. St. Amandi M. - Saint Amand, martyr. Several wax seals preserved on the reverse, as well as the original fastenings, attest to the ecclesiastical authentication of the reliquary.
