Description

English-Style Mahogany Display Cabinet, Claw-and-Ball Legs, 20th Century An elegant mahogany display cabinet featuring a glass door with geometric decoration. The sides are also fully glazed, offering a perfect view of the displayed objects. It rests on four claw-and-ball feet, inspired by 18th-century English designs, and features a beautiful, understated, and refined silhouette. The interior is fitted with two glass shelves. The piece is crafted from mahogany in warm mahogany-brown tones and retains a beautiful antique patina. Its shallow depth makes it an ideal display cabinet for showcasing trinkets, porcelain, miniatures, curiosities, or various collections. English-style piece from the first half of the 20th century.
