

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Naturalistic Chandelier With Birds, Flowers, And Foliage, Painted Sheet Metal And Saxon Porcelain

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 60

Height : 81

Description

Naturalistic Chandelier with Birds, Flowers, and Foliage, Painted Sheet Metal and Saxon Porcelain, Art Nouveau Style, Circa 1950. Charming naturalistic six-arm chandelier, crafted from painted sheet metal and patinated metal in the spirit of Hans Kögl's designs and mid-20th-century decorative pieces. The structure consists of rods representing plant branches adorned with foliage and stylized flowers. The sinuous arms support bamboo-like rods, each topped with a golden corolla-shaped lampshade. The upper section is adorned with a striking design of large, stylized mushrooms with finely textured, gilded caps, creating a particularly decorative effect. In the center sits a polychrome porcelain bird perched on a flowering branch, adding a poetic and refined

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

touch to the ensemble. With its naturalistic aesthetic and forest-inspired design, this chandelier is a unique decorative piece ideal for a library, a country home, or an eclectic-style interior. Dimensions Height: 81 cm Diameter: 60 cm Materials Metal and painted sheet metal Gilded elements Central motif in polychrome porcelain Six-bulb electrical system Condition Good overall condition. Original patina preserved. Some signs of wear and age consistent with the piece's age. Electrical system must be inspected for compliance with current standards before permanent installation.