

Louis XIII-period Burgundian Walnut Chest, 17th Century

900 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Walnut

Length : 128

Height : 72

Depth : 56

Description

Louis XIII-Era Burgundian Chest in Walnut, 17th Century Authentic Louis XIII-era Burgundian chest in solid walnut, dating from the 17th century. With a simple and elegant rectangular shape, it rests on flattened ball feet and features beautiful moldings around the edges of the lid and base. The front is adorned with its original lock, featuring a cut-out wrought-iron insert. The single-piece lid is reinforced on the inside by three long original wrought-iron hinges. The interior retains its side storage compartment (for documents or valuables), a characteristic feature of antique regional chests. The construction, featuring large assembled panels and visible dovetail joints, reflects traditional 17th-century craftsmanship. The walnut wood has developed a beautiful honey-brown patina over the

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

centuries. This type of chest was used both for storing linens and for transporting and safeguarding valuables in Burgundian mansions. Dimensions Width: 128 cm Depth: 56 cm Height: 72 cm Materials Solid walnut Wrought-iron hardware and hinges Condition In good overall condition. Signs of wear, minor imperfections, traces of use, and previous restorations consistent with a piece of furniture over three centuries old. Original lock missing Beautiful original patina. Period Louis XIII, 17th century (circa 1630-1680). Provenance Burgundy