Description

A rare and moving pair of carved wooden dining chairs stamped "Nadal the Elder," originally cream-lacquered and repainted black after January 21, 1793. In fact, the great aristocratic families (whom Nadal the Elder supplied, including the Crown and the Count of Artois in particular, had certain chairs repainted black to display their mourning for the king in their homes. These office chairs feature a crossbar that makes them very sturdy. In good overall condition; minor signs of wear from age. Original straps upholstered with a later (?) thick velvet wool fabric. Each chair is stamped "NADAL LAINE". Backrest height: 87 cm. Seat height: approx. 43 cm. Length: 44 cm, width: 40 cm.
