Description

William Barbotin (Ars en Ré 1861-1931)The Tiber River in Rome with the dome of St. Peter's Basilica, sketch Oil on canvas mounted on canvas21 x 33 cm (stretcher)25 x 37 cm (frame)Signed in abs on the right: W.BarbotinGood condition--a few scratches--needs cleaningA rare artist, William Barbotin was a painter, sculptor, and above all an engraver.https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/William_Barbotin A student of Tony Robert Fleury at the Académie Julian, he won the Prix de Rome for engraving in 1884. This was followed by a stay in Rome during which he likely created this sketch. A painting by him titled "The Tiber in Rome" is housed at the Petit Palais. Our painting must be a preparatory study for that work.
