Description

COD 11588 Mid-20th-century Italian bedside tables. Carved, lacquered, and chiseled half-moon wooden furniture with exceptionally high-quality relief decorations in the Bonzanigo, Louis XVI style of Turin. These tables feature a fabulous original marble top of excellent quality, composed of two overlapping and glued marble slabs, resulting in a considerable 4 cm thick top. These bedside tables are beautifully decorated, of great quality and impact, ideal for a grand living room or bedroom. These single-door bedside tables offer ample storage space (see photo). Drawers are adorned with bronze and gilded and chiseled brass handles. These night stands are hard to find for antique dealers and interior decorators, and are part of a set that also includes a large half-moon dresser, sold
