Description

A rare 16th-century book titled Petit Traicté de Géométrie et d'Horologigraphie Pratique by Jehan Bullant, a famous architect of the French Renaissance. Printed in Paris by Guillaume Cauellat in 1564, with the King's privilege. A beautiful, flexible antique copy, the book is illustrated with numerous engravings and technical diagrams related to geometry and the construction of sundials. Regarding the condition, please note areas that are slightly yellowed, discolored, or stained; foxing spots; signs of wear on the edges and corners; signs of handling; soiling; and annotations. Our numerous photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the book. For condition details, please refer to the photos. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
