Description

Bustling Harbor - Oil on canvas signed V. Le T. (to be identified) A charming oil on canvas depicting a bustling harbor scene with fishing sailboats and vessels at anchor. The composition, rendered in a luminous palette dominated by blues and greens, vividly captures the reflections on the water and the peaceful atmosphere of a Breton or Norman harbor. The artist employs a lively and spontaneous brushstroke, accentuated by light impasto that brings the sails, figures, and reflections to life. The work is signed in the lower right corner "V. Le T." or "V. Let" (signature to be examined). Presented in an elegant molded wooden frame with a fabric mat, this decorative painting will appeal to lovers of seascapes and coastal landscapes. Technique: oil on canvas Subject: seascape, sailboats, and harbor
