Description

Pair of Empire-style side tables in cherry wood. Marbled wood top added at a later date, under-top band with carved rosettes and gilded leaf-motif moldings, four turned column-like legs with Corinthian capitals and gilded bases, resting on a shaped, paneled base with a herringbone pattern, plinth feet with carved rosettes echoing those on the band. Interior made of fir. Originally, they featured recessed marble tops, and it is likely that a sculpted vase was housed in the space where the turned plug is now located at the center of the base. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
