Description

This elegant, modern signet ring is crafted from solid silver and adorned with a beautiful, oval-shaped natural carnelian. The depth of its warm, luminous reddish-brown hue gives this piece a character that is both understated and assertive. The sleek setting features a design inspired by the traditional signet ring. Its perfectly proportioned oval bezel highlights the stone without being ostentatious, while the soft, gently curved shoulders ensure a comfortable fit for everyday wear. Prized since ancient times, carnelian is a variety of chalcedony renowned for its hues ranging from deep orange to reddish-brown. Used for millennia in jewelry and seal engraving, it traditionally symbolizes vitality, courage, and timeless elegance. A ring with a understated, masculine design, easy to wear both
