PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

19th-century Tuscan Terracotta Jar

1 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 105

Height : 116

Description

Important 19th-century Tuscan terracotta jars, authentic examples of rural artisanal tradition. Handcrafted, they feature harmonious and well-proportioned shapes, with surfaces marked by a natural patina that bears witness to their use and the passage of time.Originally intended for storing olive oil, these jars retain the functional and textural charm of objects from rural culture. Slight variations in shape, color, and finish make each piece unique.Ideal as striking decorative elements in rustic, contemporary, or outdoor settings, where they add authenticity and character.In excellent overall condition, with signs of aging consistent with the period.Estimated prices: starting at EUR1,600 for the smaller models, up to EUR2,400 for the larger ones.

Dealer

Il Rigattiere di Martini

Antiques

Mobile : +393392392619

Via Aurelia nord 92

Grosseto 58100