Description

Art Deco-era tabletop full-length mirror (vanity mirror) from the 1930s, featuring authentic charm and beautiful artistic ironwork.The oval-shaped mirror is mounted on a sturdy base made of hammered black wrought iron. It can be fully tilted and swiveled thanks to its two side pivots adorned with gilded brass balls.The base of the structure features a delicate floral motif composed of five leaves in relief with a golden patina, adding a touch of elegance and light to the piece. The back of the mirror is carefully protected by an original wooden panel, held in place by a central metal frame.Perfect for adding a vintage, bohemian, or Art Deco touch to a dresser, a vanity, or a bathroom.
