Description

A very fine Limoges porcelain dinner service, from the Haviland factory, Louveciennes pattern. First released in 1974, the Louveciennes collection is inspired by a neoclassical design created in the 18th century by the Sèvres porcelain manufactory for Marie Antoinette. The design consists of alternating blue and gold medallions adorned with a rose and gold medallions. Between the medallions, garlands of intertwined laurel leaves frame motifs featuring roses and barbel fish. The background of the plates is adorned with a bouquet of flowers encircled by gilded foliage and garlands of intertwined laurel leaves. This 125-piece set for 12 people consists of the following: -12 dinner plates, 24.6 cm in diameter -12 soup plates, 23.6 cm in diameter -12 cheese plates, 20.8 cm in
