Description

A large armchair with a slightly curved "à la Reine" backrest (straight), made of natural, molded, and carved wood, decorated with flowers and foliage, resting on four small, arched legs adorned with acanthus leaves and cabochons (minor restorations, notably on one leg). Louis XV period. Good condition. Upholstered in cotton fabric featuring a design of pineapples, flowering branches, and butterflies, in like-new condition. The dimensions of this bergère--particularly its width, which is significantly greater than average--make it an extraordinary piece of furniture, offering both great comfort and elegance.
