Description

Refined pair of candelabras, carved and sculpted from solid walnut, painted in lean tempera. The two candle holders depict two young girls, with bare breasts and tunics that reveal one leg. Each holds a torch, with a candle holder at the top, in one arm. This is a unique and well-crafted pair: the candelabra and especially the painting are in perfect condition, making them particularly special, as this quality is rare to find. This pair, of great class and elegance, will add a touch of taste and antiquity to any space. Made in Venice lagoon, mid-18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 51 x 23 x 12cm
