Description

A rare pair of nightstands in mahogany, walnut, and veneer from the 1920s-1930s. Attributed to Christian Krass (1868-1957), a 20th-century Lyon-based cabinetmaker considered "the cream of Lyon's decorative arts." These two nightstands feature exceptional cabinetmaking craftsmanship and are sure to enhance your home. The two nightstands are not identical, which is what makes them unique. The marbles are also of exceptional quality: green in color with black veins. This pair of nightstands is a true rarity!!! Good overall condition, some signs of wear, a few small, discreet chips.
