

19th Century Victorian Period Rosewood Piano Stool

2 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Rosewood

Width : 52

Height : 49

Depth : 52

Description

A Gorgeous Mid-19th-Century Victorian-Period Rosewood Piano Stool and OttomanA superb mid-19th-century Victorian-period piano stool and ottoman in richly figured rosewood, dating to circa 1860. This is a rare and highly decorative piece, combining sculptural beauty with genuine practicality. The stool features finely carved, paneled sides with intricate fretwork and elegant barley twist columns. It is upholstered in charming, colorful needlepoint, adding warmth and character while remaining in excellent, pristine condition.The hinged top lifts to reveal a generous storage compartment, ideal for sheet music, magazines, or keepsakes. Inside, four solid open rosewood dividers provide organized storage, and the entire interior is beautifully lined with rosewood, demonstrating the high quality of

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

craftsmanship throughout. Below, a neat mahogany-lined drawer offers additional discreet storage. The piece stands on a set of four bun feet with inset brass casters, making it easy to move while retaining a refined, period look. The well-proportioned, sculptural base ensures that the stool looks impressive from every angle. Retaining its original color, patina, and deep polish, this piano stool has the warm glow and character that only well-preserved mid-19th-century furniture can offer. Structurally sound and in excellent original condition, it clearly represents top-tier Victorian cabinetmaking. Serving both as a functional storage piece and a striking decorative statement, this Victorian rosewood piano stool and ottoman will enhance any interior that values fine 19th-century craftsmanship, individuality, and timeless style.