Description

19th-Century Blackened Meurisier Wood Folding Screen This folding screen consists of four panels decorated with animal carvings reminiscent of the 19th-century taste for chinoiserie. The fabrics, featuring animal and plant motifs, were reupholstered by a professional upholsterer. The Meurisier wood frame was restored in our workshop. A collector's item for enthusiasts of exceptional furniture and historic design. Every detail reveals the artisanal craftsmanship of the period, enhanced by our restoration in the workshop. Restored in our workshop in accordance with the profession's ethical standards, guaranteeing the authenticity and longevity of this exceptional piece. Featured on the May 5 episode of "La vie des objets" Dimensions (H x W x D) 1650 x 250 x 2
